FAMILY NEWS

1. Facebook Livestream Discontinued

From July 2025, Sunday Services will no longer be streamed on Facebook. However, you can continue to watch the livestream on our website and YouTube channel. Do subscribe to our YouTube channel to receive notifications when the livestream is available.

2. Breakfast Update

Earlier this year, we had to stop our full breakfast service due to a setback. Since April, we've been trying a simpler format with one food item each week. However, after two months of trial, this arrangement has proven to be unfeasible due to the early morning timing, manpower needs and diverse dietary requirements.

That said, we are committed to preserving our time of fellowship over breakfast. From the first weekend of August, our breakfast will come in a lighter format: coffee, tea, our barista service, and an assortment of biscuits. You're also welcome to bring your own breakfast.

The current breakfast arrangement will stop at the end of July. Although the arrangement may be simpler, we trust God will continue to enrich our fellowship. Thank you for your understanding as we make this change.
